A LITTLE HISTORY

Centrally located in Austin's popular downtown entertainment district, Stubb's Bar-B-Q is a landmark attraction housed in a 19th-century structure that has served as a homestead, a grocery, a used furniture store, a beer bar and a tavern called the One Knite, still remembered by longtime Austinites. The familiar rock-faced gabled building has been a live music venue for close to 40 years with Stubb's indoor stage, huge backyard and amphitheatre featuring some of the greatest names in music including Willie Nelson, B.B. King and Linda Ronstadt, as well as many highly regarded musicians that call Austin home.
